

Halloween words & music by Hans Mayer

Don't walk in the shadows, don't step on the cracks
Avoid any black cats that could cross your path
Tonight will be crazy, strangest folk you've ever seen
Cause you can be what ever you want it's Halloween

Chorus

It's Halloween, it's Halloween
It's the strangest night you've ever seen

All the Witches and the Goblins are knocking at your door
Do they just want candy, or is there more?
Are those really costumes or what you see you get
Let me tell you, you ain't seen nothing yet

It just gets weirder as the moon gets high
And you get jumpy when it fills the sky
You imagine the blood dripping down your neck
Well, let me tell you, you ain't seen nothing yet
Chorus

So ring those door bells, yell Trick or Treat
Get as much candy as you could ever eat
But watch out for the stranger that offers a snack
Cause let me tell you, you ain't seen nothing yet

Don't walk in the graveyards, there's real ghosts in there
And they only come out, one night a year
At the Witching Hour, you better watch your back
Cause let me tell you, you ain't seen nothing yet
Chorus

So when you get home, better lock your door
Lock the windows, lay down on the floor
Be as quiet as you can get
Cause let me tell you, you ain't seen nothing yet

Do you believe in people from other worlds

Look around you, Hey!, what about that girl?
Is she really human or is it a trick?
Well let me tell you, you ain't seen nothing yet
Chorus

All kinds of monsters are out tonight
Anyone of them would love to give you a fright
Make you scream, make you a wreck
But let me tell you, you ain't seen nothing yet

It's Halloween, it's Halloween
You see the strangest sights on Halloween
If there's no reflection in your mirror
Now that's the time that you had better fear
